Paul,

This email I received from Lisa made me realize that even though I was reading from the wrong link, at least one of my suggestions still stands --

- It would be helpful to indicate the date on which each of the entries in Volume 4 was written !

Thanks for your kind responses.

Recent Litigation -- article ends with statement, "The trial to determine the amount of compensation to be paid was held in July 2002. the Court's final decision is expected in late 2003 or early 2004."

Maybe this article could be updated with the result. Also, somewhere it should indicated the extent or limitation of the article-- i.e., whether these are all of the court cases in California pertaining to water in the period 1999-2005 (which I believe is now the date that will be on the Bulletin -- as in Bulletin 160-05?). The author also makes reference in earlier cited cases of 2003.

Possible actions:

- A cursory reading indicates that these are the cases that involved DWR -- not California. This should be reflected in the title.

- It would be a good idea to indicate the date on which each of the entries in Volume 4 was written.
